

Water Pollution Prevention Community Outreach – Exhibits at Community Events

Youth (Water Pollution Prevention) Peer Instructors Enjoy a Community Outreach Event at a Local Park. The effort pictured here is also supported by a Community Action Grant from the City of Sacramento's Stormwater Management Program.

Another view of a water pollution prevention exhibit

Disabled youth have easy access to information on local natural resources and water pollution prevention methods

Local Sacramento Conservation Corps member explains the importance of preventing water pollution to local youth

Local families receive water pollution prevention information & free school supplies

